Lenahan named managing executive of Anawon Trust

Bristol County Savings Bank has announced that Paul M. Lenahan has been named Executive Vice President of Anawon Trust, a division of Bristol County Savings Bank. With over 30 years of experience, Lenahan brings a wealth of experience in banking, investments and trusts.

In his new position as the managing executive of Anawon Trust, Lenahan will have the primary responsibility of providing oversight of Anawon Trust's investment and trust services to their clients. Most recently, Lenahan was an Investment Executive for U. S. Trust in Providence RI.

Lenahan is a graduate of Providence College where he was awarded a Masters of Business Administration and a Bachelor of Arts in Economics. He is also a Certified Financial Planner™ Professional and a graduate of the College for Financial Planning.

Currently a member of the Rhode Island Estate Planning Council and the Providence Society of Financial Analysts, Lenahan received the Mal Brown Award from Providence College's Mal Brown Club in 2007 for loyalty and distinguished service to Providence College and the community. Lenahan is a board member and Treasurer of the Hockomock YMCA and Vice Chairman of Phoenix Houses of New England. He is also a member of the President's Council of Providence College and the Diocese of Providence Loan Review Committee.

He previously served as the Director of the United Way of Attleboro and the United Way of Metro West and has participated in development activities for the American Cancer Society, the American Heart Association, and other charitable organizations. Lenahan is a resident of North Attleboro where he has served as a member of the Finance Committee and Representative Town Meeting.
